Aggravated Malicious Wounding | Hit & Run Crash Investigation *ADDITIONAL INCIDENT | ARREST

– On June 28 at 12:28PM, officers responded to a residence located in the 8900 block of Rugby Rd. in Manassas (20109) to investigate a domestic dispute. When officers arrived on scene, a man, later identified as the accused, brandished a knife, and began stabbing himself. Officers quickly detained the accused and provided first aid until fire and rescue personnel arrived and flew the accused to an area hospital where he is expected to survive. The investigation revealed the accused was involved in a verbal altercation with an acquaintance, a 29-year-old woman, that escalated when the accused pulled the victim to the ground. At one point, the accused retrieved a knife and threatened the victim when other occupants in the home attempted to intervene. The accused then drove his vehicle into a parked vehicle outside of the residence as the victim and other occupants retreated to bedroom in the home. The accused attempted to force entry into the room when police arrived on scene. Minor injuries were reported by one of the other parties. While investigating the incident, officers determined the accused was wanted for his involvement in an unrelated malicious assault that occurred on Kilhaven Ct. in Manassas on June 25. Following the investigation, the accused, identified as Anthony Roni VAUGHN III, was arrested.
